

Graffiti can show messages and can be an important form of artistic expression

All graffiti is criminal damage

I preferred the rusty ship as it was

They have adorned an eyesore, something that has been neglected has become something that brightens up its environment

This should be scrapped. It has defaced what was in her day one of the finest sailing vessels

This is a valuable work of art and should preserved in a museum or gallery

The world is the Graffiti artists' canvas

This makes an otherwise beautiful area look run down

Graffiti art attracts locals and tourists from around the world

The so-called 'artists' should be fined to pay for the damage

Graffiti artists are stuck in a creative rut

These Graffiti artists are talented and people can appreciate their skills in the natural environment
